My daughter,

God is truly watching over his children but many today are neglecting their soul. Many are choosing darkness which truly offends God. So many today are not prepared to meet Almighty God. I say to all my children do not be fooled by the enemy. Turn away from sin & amend your ways. Turn away from sin & convert now so you are ready when it is your time to leave this earth. This time is so special so please, please accept God's grace. Accept the many graces that are flowing from your heavenly father. Accept & believe & prepare your hearts now. Sincere prayer from your hearts is how you will come to know Jesus. A true desire to change is how you will be led on the right path. Daily mass & frequent confession is how your armor will become strong. I urge each of you to strengthen your Faith through prayer & fasting.

I urge each of you to take my hand so that I can help you unlearn your ways. Time on this earth is shorter than you think so please do not delay.
I am truly here to direct & guide you for so much darkness surrounds this world. Please be more attentive & take heed to the gospel.
Stand firm in your faith & do the opposite of what Satan is telling you. Love your enemies & pray daily for those who are choosing darkness. Many angels & saints surround you so please ask for their assistance. Honor St. Joseph & he will truly protect you. Work together & become a holy family.
Work together & light the way for others. Continue to fill the church & pray, pray from your hearts.
You are each Gods children so please obey & convert now. Be a shining example of Gods unconditional love. So many have lost their way &
