2730-1

My daughter,

If my children truly loved Jesus they would have peace in their hearts. A heart full of worry will add misery to your life. It is time to let go of fear + worry + to trust, trust in Gods love for you. Without complete trust + confidence in our Lord it is impossible to move forward. Please dear children turn to God each new day. Let go of all that is troubling you so you have more time to pray. Prayer is what will draw you closer to Jesus, not a heavy heart. Prayer + quiet time with our Lord will give you peace. There is still much work that needs to be done so please turn to Jesus + allow him to fill your hearts with peace + joy. Turn to Jesus + Respond whole heartedly to these messages so you can truly be a living testimony to all your brothers + sisters.

2730-2

This world needs to see Christ in you so please, please dear children respond. Pray each new day + believe that peace truly comes from Almighty God. Now please keep your hearts open + abandon yourselves to God.
Keep your hearts open + be prayerful + I promise you God will remove all your fears.
God loves each of you so accept his love. Accept his mercy + peace.
amen
