My daughter,

In this time of preparation my children must stay close to their Pope + obey church teaching. This pope will lead the faithful forward but all must do their part for the salvation of souls. I am here to assist my children in this time of purification. If you truly want my assistance than you must not compromise with the world. You must be strong in your faith + live, love the Gospel. You must be obedient to the Pope + the bishops united with him. You must obey the will of God + be humble, faith filled children. Your prayers, faithfulness + obedience is what will bring light to the world. Your fidelity to God is how darkness will be removed. Gods mercy is infinite + he promises to protect those who trust in him. Gods plans are perfect + he will truly bless those who trust & have hope in him. So please be merciful & pick up your cross each new day. Live your Catholic faith & ask God to purify you so you grow in holiness. Receive the sacraments often so you become strong warriors for Jesus.

Receive the sacraments for this is all part of embracing Gods love.
Now go forth with hope in your hearts for there is joy, happiness & peace in eternal life. Amen
