My daughter,

Prayer will bring you peace so stay close, close to Jesus. Share your day with my son & carry him with you wherever you go. Each time my son speaks to you listen to his words & than do all that he is asking of you. Time is moving quickly so please share your love of knowing Jesus. Share your love of knowing Jesus & be willing to suffer for those who are choosing darkness. There are many troubled areas in the world & many, many need prayer. Many are starving spiritually because of their refusal to come to know Jesus. Many families are in turmoil because of lack of love in the home. So much evil exists because so many are going in to the ways of the world. I am here to teach my children but many are refusing to listen. Many have turned their backs ~~on~~ my

Son. So many babies are being killed throughout the world. Abortion is on the rise because so many do not respect life. Each abortion adds many wounds to Jesus most precious body. Abortion is the greatest sin in this world. Sin is what will destroy humanity. Many prayers & sacrifices are needed because evil has become widespread. Many rosaries are needed in order to lesson what is coming your way. So please join hands & fill the church. Join hands & pray together & implore Gods mercy. Pray your rosary every day. Live the gospel, make sacrifices for the sins of the world. Trust in God & believe in the power of prayer. Now please spend time in prayer & do all that you can to please almighty God. Amen
