2798-1

My daughter,

I am here today to remind my children to pray each new day. Change is about to happen soon as the earth is trembling & the ocean is rising all around the world.

If man does not repent soon they will suffer for all eternity.

Many will not be prepared if they continue to live in sin. It is time now to wake your brothers & sisters & invite them to those groups that I have formed. It is in these groups that they will come to know God's mercy & love. These hearts will change if they pray & give their life to God. They will feel my motherly presence if they take refuge in my Immaculate heart. I want all my children to be happy but they must do their part in order for change to occur in their life. I am pleading with my children for so many are living in mortal sin. Many are living in mortal sin because they do not want to give up their sinful ways. Disasters will become widespread without more prayer, & penance. Cities will become bare if man continues to destroy life. Famine & plague will become widespread. Much will come your way if you continue to disobey God. These messages are for the world so please take heed & respond today. Amend your ways & respond to what your most holy Pope is telling you. He has but little time to teach his flock so do not delay. Time is moving quickly so please, please dear children repent, get down on your knees & pray, pray for mankind. Amen
