My daughter,

My son wants more prayer for there is so much turmoil all around the world. Please join hands & pray the rosary for it is a powerful prayer to help save souls. I say to my children time is short, extremely short so pray, pray each new day. Pray for peace in this darkened world. Pray that more will turn to God instead of the many weapons that are being stored. Please understand that prayer is your protection not war. Prayer ~~from~~ your heart will keep the enemy away. Satan will flee wherever there is prayer. Satan will flee but you must pray, pray from your heart. You must meditate on each mystery & keep your focus on my son Jesus. Your prayers can not reach heaven if you are only reciting words. Please pray slowly & pray, pray from your heart. Let go of all that is distracting you so you truly pray from your heart, It is time now to be faithful children. It is time to truly respond to all that I am teaching you.

This is the time so please receive my son with an open heart. Ask my son to help you + than listen + pray + receive the sacraments.
Go forth now as prayerful children. Go forth with love + hope in your hearts. Amen
