My daughter,

The world must understand that God has chosen many to relay our messages so more repent + live a life of holiness. These messages are the gospel so please let go of fear. Let go of fear + turn to Jesus + you will truly come to know the fullness of all that I am teaching my children. I am here to wake mankind because so many are on the wrong road. In time these messages will end + you will have to live all that I am relaying to you. Please dear children begin today or it will become much more difficult for you. Let go of your worldly ways + make time to be with my son Jesus. Strength will be given to those who are truly living the gospel. Please have a deep repentance for those sins you have committed. Turn to the sacraments + rely on God to help you. The way my

Children are behaving truly, truly offends God. Please take refuge in the merciful heart of my son + in my Immaculate heart.
Pray, pray for those who are living in mortal sin. Pray that they will have a transition of heart.
Pray that more will live the gospel + obey each commandment. Today I am asking that each of you get down on your knees + pray. I am asking for more prayer because many are going in to satans evil ways. Now please increase your time to be with my son + live, live his ways of holiness. Amen
